

Chad Hammons

Chad J. Hammons is a shareholder in the Firm's Litigation Practice Group. He is a graduate of the University of Mississippi (B.A., magna cum laude, 1988; M.A., 1991; J.D., 1996), and is a former full-time instructor in the University's Department of Sociology. As an undergraduate, Mr. Hammons was the recipient of the Ella Somerville Award as Outstanding Student in Creative Writing, and the Julien Tatum Award as Outstanding Senior in Sociology. During graduate school, Mr. Hammons was a two-year participant in the McLean Institute for Community Development Leadership Class, and was honored by the Mississippi Press Association for his work as a weekly opinion columnist for The Daily Mississippian. While in law school, he was an active member of the Moot Court Board and was a member and coach of the National Appellate Advocacy Team, while also serving as Editor of The Solicitor.

Mr. Hammons is board certified in creditors' rights law and was selected for participation in the inaugural class of the Meritas Leadership Institute.

He is a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers, the Hinds County Bar Association, the Mississippi Bankruptcy Conference, and the American Bankruptcy Institute. Mr. Hammons focuses his practice in creditors' rights and bankruptcy law, shopping center litigation and general commercial litigation.

Chad J. Hammons
Shareholder

Areas of Practice:

- Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Law
- Commercial Litigation
- Collections & Repossessions
- Shopping Center Litigation
- Real Estate Litigation
- General Litigation
- Workouts