

Chris Shaw

Chris Shaw is a Shareholder in the firm's litigation practice group where his practice includes commercial litigation, general civil litigation, insurance litigation, labor and employment litigation, and media law. Mr. Shaw is a native of Forest, Mississippi. He is a graduate of the University of Mississippi (B.A., cum laude, 1997) and the University of Mississippi School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2001). While in law school, Chris was a member of and served on the executive board of both the Mississippi Law Journal and the Moot Court Board.

Chris is admitted to the Mississippi Bar, United States District Courts for the Southern and Northern Districts of Mississippi, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. He is a member of the Capitol Area Bar Association, a Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section Member, of the American Bar Association, the National Association of Settlement Purchasers and Jackson Young Lawyers. Chris is the author of the Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress section of the Mississippi Encyclopedia of Law, and has been a presenter at various seminars on topics of electronic discovery, document retention and e-mail policies as well as insurance coverage law.

Christopher R. Shaw
Shareholder

Areas of Practice:

- Commercial Litigation
- Insurance Coverage Litigation
- General Civil Litigation
- Consumer Finance Litigation
- Media Law
- Structured Settlement Purchases
- Electronic Discovery
- Employment Litigation
- Wage/Hour Litigation