

David Grishman

By professional training, David is a tax lawyer but his practice is more expansive. It focuses not only on federal, state and local tax planning and controversies, estate and business succession planning, administration of trusts and estates, business entity formations, mergers, acquisitions and dispositions but also on securities private placements and franchise organization and operation for franchisors and franchisees. With over 35 years of business practice experience, David has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America (Tax Law, Trusts and Estates, Corporate Law and Franchise Law), Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers (Corporate/Commercial), Mid-South Super Lawyers (Business/Corporate Law) (also selected as one of the top 50 lawyers in Mississippi) and has been granted the highest rating by Martindale-Hubbell (AV).

David helps clients by organizing, buying, selling, merging and operating business entities, drafting a variety of sophisticated business agreements, drafting estate, trust and business succession documents, administering trusts and estates, and structuring real estate and a variety of business private placements of securities. In addition, he structures franchises and represents franchisors and franchisees alike in their business relationships. He also structures transactions in a tax efficient manner, and represents clients before the IRS, State Tax Commission and local tax authorities in tax controversy matters.

In professional and civic organizations, David has served as the Chair of the Mississippi Tax Institute, Chair of the Tax Section of The Mississippi Bar, Chair of the Taxation Committee of the Mississippi Manufacturers Association and Past Chair of the Community Foundation of Greater Jackson. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama (B.A., 1966) and its School of Law (J.D., 1970) and New York University Graduate School of Law (LL.M. in taxation, 1971). He has been elected by his peers as a Fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel, the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and the Mississippi Bar Foundation. He is a member of The Mississippi Bar and the American Bar Association. In addition, David serves as the Chair of the Business and Government Department of the firm.
