

Gina Jacobs

Gina M. Jacobs is a shareholder in the firm's Private Client Services Group, which serves the needs of small businesses, their owners and key executives. Gina focuses her practice in corporate law, commercial finance, mergers and acquisitions, and health law.

During her career, she has been instrumental in numerous multi-million dollar business transactions including facility construction, plant expansion, and acquiring controlling interest in other businesses through a variety of methods. Her vast knowledge of contract law, corporate taxation and corporate finance make her an asset to her clients as they grow and expand their business. Additionally, she uses her experience in contract law and corporate finance to help clients develop strategies for collecting troubled loans

Gina is a graduate of the University of Mississippi (B.B.A., summa cum laude, 1980; J.D., magna cum laude, 1983). While in law school, she was Research Editor of the Mississippi Law Journal. Gina is a member of The Mississippi Bar, the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association, the American Health Lawyers Association, and a past member of the Board of Directors and Secretary of the Jackson Young Lawyers Association. She is also a member of the Mississippi Secretary of State's Business Law Advisory Group.

In addition to her law career, Gina is an adjunct professor of Business Law at Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi.
