

Bill Williams

Bill Williams practices law throughout the Southeastern United States with a base in South Mississippi. Mr. Williams primarily concentrates in general corporate matters, commercial real estate, mergers and acquisitions, federal, state and local taxation, estate planning, and exempt organizations.

Bill has extensive experience in complicated commercial real estate transactions, including joint ventures, real estate limited partnerships, mortgage backed securities, real estate investment trusts, mezzanine financing, and 1031 tax-free exchanges.

Mr. Williams works closely with a variety of individual clients to enable them to accomplish their disposition goals while minimizing wealth-transfer and income taxes. He represents clients in all aspects of court proceedings involving estates, trusts, guardianships, and conservatorships.

Mr. Williams also represents both buyers and sellers in all types of mergers and acquisitions. He structures transactions in a manner that accomplishes the business deal while minimizing the tax consequences.

Mr. Williams received his Master's of Law degree in Estate Planning from the University of Miami. He received his Juris Doctor, his Master's of Taxation, and his Bachelor's of Accountancy from the University of Mississippi. He is a member of the American Bar Association and its Sections on Taxation and Real Property, Probate & Trust Law. Mr. Williams is a member of the Mississippi Bar, the Tennessee Bar, and the Georgia Bar, and is a graduate of the Leadership Gulf Coast Program.
