

Keith Turner

Keith W. Turner is a shareholder in the Firm's Education, Environmental and Government Law Practice Group. He is a graduate of Boston University (B.A., 1981) and Mississippi College School of Law (J.D., 1998). Prior to practicing law, Mr. Turner spent over ten years as an environmental consultant working with clients on water, air, hazardous waste and groundwater remediation matters. Mr. Turner's practice involves Clean Air Act ("CAA") and Clean Water Act ("CWA") permitting, compliance and enforcement issues, Resource, Conservation, and Recovery Act ("RCRA") and Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA") compliance and corrective actions, enforcement defense, real estate development. His practice also involves client representation before the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Mr. Turner is an adjunct professor at Mississippi College School of Law, teaching courses on the Clean Water Act, Hazardous Waste Law and Environmental Law, and is a former adjunct at Jackson State University teaching Environmental Policy. He has also lectured extensively on Clean Water Act, environmental issues in real estate development, Brownfields and related environmental issues.

He is a member of the Mississippi, Capitol Area, Environmental Law and American Bar Associations, and in addition to admission in the Mississippi state and federal district courts, is admitted to the United States Court of International Trade. He also serves on the Mississippi Bar's Natural Resources, Energy and Environmental Law Section as an Executive Committee member. Mr. Turner is a Fellow in the Geological Society of America and in 2008, he was recognized by Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers (Environment). Mr. Turner focuses his practice in environmental and business law.

Areas of Practice:

- Environmental Law
- Environmental Compliance
- Environmental Litigation
- Environmental Permitting
- Business Law
- Brownfield Projects
- Water & Sewer
- Federal Grants

Keith W. Turner
Shareholder

