

Laura Gibbes

Laura Limerick Gibbes is a shareholder in the Firm's Litigation Practice Group. She is a graduate of the University of Mississippi (B.A., 1986; J.D., cum laude, 1990). While in law school, she received the Dean's Distinguished Service Award. She was a Research Editor of the Mississippi Law Journal and a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Delta Phi.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Gibbes clerked for Judge William H. Barbour, Jr., Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi. She is a member of The Mississippi Bar, the Capitol Area Bar Association, the Federal Bar Association, and the Bar Association of the Fifth Federal Circuit. Ms. Gibbes focuses her practice in commercial, insurance and environmental litigation, and media and first amendment law.

Areas of Practice:

Insurance Litigation

Professional Liability

Business & Commercial
Litigation

Laura L. Gibbes
Shareholder

