

Mark Davis

Mark uses his 20+ years of practicing law to help his clients coordinate real estate developments and orchestrate other real estate related transactions including acquisition, leasing, financing, zoning and all other aspects of the development process. Although Mark specializes in retail development, the projects he has completed include not only the development of shopping centers, but also office buildings, hotels, mixed-use facilities, hospital expansions and manufacturing facilities. He also represents lenders in lending transactions, as well as foreclosures, often teaming with our bankruptcy attorneys to form a formidable collection team.

He is a graduate of Samford University (B.A., magna cum laude, 1981) and Cumberland School of Law (J.D., summa cum laude, 1984). While in law school, he was Managing Editor of the Cumberland Law Review. Mr. Davis is a member and former chair of the Real Property Section of The Mississippi Bar. He is also a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers, the Mortgage Bankers Association of America and the Mississippi Mortgage Bankers Associations. Mark recently authored two chapters in Foreclosure Law in Mississippi published by The University of Mississippi. He is listed in The Best Lawyers in America, Real Estate Section, is ranked in the Top 50 Lawyers in Mississippi by Key Professional Media, Inc., publishers of Mid South Super Lawyers Magazine and is ranked one of the top Real Estate lawyers in Mississippi by Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers. Mark leads a team of real estate lawyers that has been ranked as the top team in the state by Chambers USA.
