

Tricia Herlihy

Tricia draws on her wealth of knowledge and experience to guide clients through divorce, custody issues, visitation rights, child support, property division, marital agreements, prenuptial agreements, enforcement of orders, contempt actions, modifications, paternity, adoption and mediation. Tricia is passionately dedicated to her clients and their needs.

While her first choice is to reach agreement through negotiation, she always keeps the best interest of the client first and foremost, even when that leads to courtroom battles. Her trial experience includes numerous courtroom appearances.

Tricia is a graduate of the University of Mississippi School of Law and received her undergraduate degree from Newcomb College of Tulane University. She is active in several civic and industry groups and has published numerous articles on divorce law including: "Analyze Financial Information in a Divorce," "Get the Lay of the Land: Discovery Tools and Tactics," and "Back in the Garage: Concluding the Divorce Action."

She is admitted to practice in Mississippi Courts, U.S. District Court Northern District of Mississippi, U.S. District Court Southern District of Mississippi, and U.S. Court of Appeals 5th Circuit.

Patricia E. Herlihy
Counsel

Areas of Practice:

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Divorce Law

Family Law

Mediation