

Steve Rimmer

Stephen W. Rimmer is Of Counsel in the Firm's Litigation Practice Group. He is a graduate of the University of Mississippi (B.B.A. in Marketing and Finance, 1965) and the University of Mississippi School of Law (J.D. 1972). While in law school, he served as Vice Chairman and Chairman of the University of Mississippi School of Law Moot Court Board and held various class offices. Mr. Rimmer has participated in numerous seminars and has lectured on the subjects of zoning, impact fees, governmental exactions and various other land use regulatory matters. Mr. Rimmer focuses his practice in the areas of land use regulation, shopping centers and real estate litigation. He spent 20 years as City Attorney for the City of Madison involving formulating, implementing, enforcing and defending comprehensive land use controls. Mr. Rimmer also represented clients in cases of eminent domain, boundary disputes, stigma or proximity damages, inverse condemnation, regulatory taking matters and numerous lease issues.

Areas of Practice:

Commercial Litigation

Real Estate

Public Utility

Employment Law

Local Government Law

Stephen W. Rimmer
Counsel

